DETAILED ACTION

New corrected drawings in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in this application because the figures are hand-drawn. Applicant is advised to employ the services of a competent patent draftsman outside the Office, as the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office no longer prepares new drawings. The corrected drawings are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The requirement for corrected drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-6,8,9,11,12, and 18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by USP 6,560,815 (Brennan et al.).

The wringer (15) comprises a support element (generally elements 23,25), having a wringer surface (generally element 19,35,17,21) which comprises a first portion consisting of wall (19) extending to drain holes (35) or optionally extending to wall (17). The wringer surface having a second portion which can be surface (17) extending to the curved portion (21) or optionally consisting of only curve portion (21).

With respect to claim 18, the wringer (15) comprises a support channel which mates with the rim surface of the bucket, a support wall (generally element 25), a first surface (19) and a second surface (generally 31, 35, 17, and 21).

Claims 15 and 16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by USP 603,547 (Wolff).

Art Unit: 1744

The Wolff patent discloses a wringer comprising an upper support wall (10) a second depending support walls (14) a first depending support wall (16), a wringer surface (17) and a second portion (18,19,20).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Art Unit: 1744

Claim 7 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over USP 6,560,815 (Brennan et al.) in view of USP 2,290,217 (Trindl et al.).

The Brennan et al. wringer (15) does not include perforation on all of the surfaces (17,19). The Trindl et al. patent discloses a wringer which includes perforation on all of the surface. It would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to provide all of the wringer surfaces in the Brennan et al patent in order to drain the water from the cleaning head more quickly, as taught in Trindl et al.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 10,13,14,17 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

As allowable subject matter has been indicated, applicant's reply must either comply with all formal requirements or specifically traverse each requirement not complied with. See 37 CFR 1.111(b) and MPEP § 707.07(a).
